

Compass (Words and Music, Kurt E Hoffman ©2011)

Remembering all that we have been through, Remembering each and every day, hey Here is where we are, and I pray that we will always keep getting stronger,
Here is my compass; it's just a symbol of where we can always be found,
Near your heart, warm and secure,
North, South, East and West, the magnetic pull doesn't rest.
North, South, East and West, the polar magnet points to us.
