

Cloud Formations (words and music Kurt E Hoffman, Copyright 2009)

Aa, yoh, aa, yoh....

And, as we're walking around without a care in the world,
It is a beautiful day,
And you're holding my hand,
And there's a breeze in the air,
And the waves are within our sight
And it's a cloud formation

And there's a fluffy pink pig with a stove pipe hat,
And he's dancing with a Mr. Lincoln

And there's a big pole cat on an elephant's back,
And he's giving him bad direction

And there's a little aardvark playing Frisbee in the park,
And he's thinking he's a huge sensation

And as we're walking around without a care in the world,
It is a beautiful day,
And you're holding my hand,
And then the waves are in sight
And, it's a cloud

Well it's a cloud formation; well it's the cloud formations.

Yeah, it's the cloud formations
