

Sputnik (Music & Lyrics: Kurt E Hoffman Copyright 2008)

You're not made of cheap ol' plastic, and there's no sign of a mixed alloy, You've outlasted all the other prototypes, and you've been giving us such great joy,

You are my little Russian satellite, the best design of your own kind,
And you've been orbiting around this ol' earth; you clean the corners of my mind,
And I trust that you always will be here, cuz you're a starter every time Well they speak of all the modern marvels, but you're here and you're still mine

And we love all your attachments; they come complete with the canister, You're a splendor in versatility, as you tackle the banister

You are my little Russian satellite, the best design of your own kind,
And you've been orbiting around this ol' earth; you clean the corners of my
mind,
Well they speak of all those modern marvels, but you're here and you're still
mine

You're not made of cheap ol' plastic, and there's no sign of a mixed alloy, You've outlasted all the other prototypes, and you've been giving us such great
joy,
And we love all your attachments; they come complete with the canister,
You're a splendor in versatility, as you tackle my banister
.....can't you see, can't you see.....

You are my little Russian satellite; you're my Sputnik, Sputnik You're the best design of your own kind, Sputnik, Sputnik And you've been orbiting around this old earth; Sputnik, Sputnik you clean the corners of my mind, Sputnik, Sputnik
And I trust that you always will be here, Sputnik, Sputnik Well they speak of all those modern marvels, but You're My Sputnik, Sputnik
