

Laundromat Lovers (Words & Music Kurt E Hoffman ©1986)

Went down to the Laundromat to wash my jeans and stuff like that
Had some socks some bath towels too some underwear has hard as glue
She had some tops some jeans and sweaters
And if I had clean clothes I never would have met her
Laundromat lovers yah we both had others

But now we share, we share detergent
Now we share, and it's really urgent

Well I'll just wash and fold her little blue blouse with the flowers
And she'll just try to dry my jeans it'll only take 3 hours

Laundromat lovers yah we both had others
But now we share, we share detergent
Now we share, and it's really urgent, Hmm, hmmm.....

Went out to the grocery store to get some stew brand Dinty Moore
Need some floss some jock itch spray, ran out of that the other day
She grabbed the cart and went a flying through the aisle
And said I'm awful slow but said it with a smile

Grocery store shoppers, yah we both had offers, but now we choose
We choose to eat real late, now we choose, we choose to congregate

Well she'll just cross stuff off the list and ask if we need flour
And I'll just give my stupid look like why we need this flour?

Grocery store shoppers, yah we both had offers
And Laundromat lovers yah we both had others
But now we know, we know this is the way
Now we know, and our love is here to stay. Hmm, hmmm
